PRESS RELEASE
Jermaine Smith Receives
NPhA Wendell T. Hill Award

Chicago, IL – Mr. Jermaine Smith was awarded the National Pharmaceutical Association (NPhA) Wendell T. Hill Award at the 62nd NPhA Annual Meeting. The Annual Meeting was held in Chicago, IL, July 17th – July 20th, 2009, at the Chicago Marriott Downtown Magnificent Mile.

Established to honor the longtime Dean of Howard University, College of Pharmacy and Past President of NPhA, the Wendell T. Hill Award recognizes an outstanding Zone Director who has best conducted the business of the Association through increased membership and other professional and community programs through the Zone.

Mr. Smith is currently the Director of College Relations and Professional Recruitment with the Rite Aid Corporation. He is also Zone 1 Director for NPhA and President of the Maryland Pharmaceutical Society. He is also a member of the American Pharmacists Association, American Association of College of Pharmacy, Phi Lambda Sigma, and Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity Inc.

Mr. Smith received his Bachelor of Science in Pharmacy from the University of South College of Pharmacy.

The National Pharmaceutical Association, founded in 1947, is the oldest and largest professional society representing the views and ideals of minority pharmacists on critical issues affecting health care and pharmacy. NPhA is a leader in the pharmaceutical care arena that addresses socio-economic issues affecting the individual patient and advances the standards of care in all practice settings.
